

Mark / Chapter 14

Short Summaries

In Mark 14, Jesus is anointed with oil by a woman and then shares a meal with his disciples in which he tells them that one of them will betray him.

In Mark 14, Jesus is anointed by a woman with expensive perfume, and he predicts his own betrayal.

Summaries

The chapter opens with Jesus in the temple, teaching and answering questions. The chief priests and teachers of the law are looking for a way to arrest him, but they are afraid of the people. In the evening, Jesus and the disciples go to the Mount of Olives, and Jesus says that the Son of Man will be betrayed and that they will all fall away. Peter says he will never fall away, but Jesus says that he will deny him three times. Jesus is then arrested, and taken to the high priest's house.

Jesus arrives in Jerusalem for Passover. He shares a final meal with his disciples, known as the Last Supper, during which he predicts his betrayal. Jesus is then arrested, tried and sentenced to death. He is crucified and dies on the cross.
